Greetings from Volos!

You can find our fact sheet on our website, <http://erasmus.uth.gr/en/studies-en/infosheet> .

Since the academic year 2017-18, there is a list of all available courses per Department taught in English. The list is updated at the beginning of each academic year. The list of courses in English can be found on <http://erasmus.uth.gr/en/studies-en/courses-en> .

Students are encouraged to choose from the list of courses available in English. Of course, they are welcome to choose among the other courses offered by the department, as long as the responsible professor agrees. We ask that the majority of the courses are from the department they are nominated to.

They are free to choose courses available in English from other departments too (those on the list on our website). If they want to choose a course not on the list of offered courses in English, they have to have the agreement of the responsible professors of both departments.
